Around the Square

As we give consideration to the alternate depot island plan, as proposed last week by A. L. Suman, let's remember one thing:

It was not suggested that the Kersting Court area become "just a parking lot."

Although the proposal has not yet been engineered, it appears from the artist's sketch that with parking stalls on both sides of the court there would be room for several more cars. Mr. Suman estimated that an additional 12, possibly more, cars could be accommodated. Chief of Police Gordon G. McMillan, mentally chipped away a little more of the island, envisions room for quite a few more cars.

At any rate, the additional parking space is merely a "pleasant by-product" of Mr. Suman's plan—not to be ignored of course, but also not to be considered the only reason for the plan.

Mr. Suman feels, as we do, that the station never could be large enough for exhibiting paintings. And even if it were, it then would require constant maintenance and a full-time custodian.

To convert the old depot building into an art gallery or Chamber office, as originally proposed, would cost an estimated $6000. And what would we then have? A gallery too small to adequately display art, and an office which always will require a regular receptionist.

The new sketch features a landscaped area, only slightly smaller than the present island, but without the old station. It substitutes, instead, a

Mickey Home;
Local Monkey
Business Ends

The saga of Mickey the Monkey ended happily Saturday as the rambling rhesus was rounded up.

Mickey, who had been roaming at large for eight days, was captured early Saturday morning by Mrs. H. M. Skeels, 409 W. Orange Grove. Her nemesis is a saucer of milk.

Mrs. Skeels spotted the monkey in her yard and started enticing it toward the house with bread. When it was happily lapping up the milk, Mrs. Skeels came around behind her and made a grab.

"She didn't just whimper or cry; Mickey screamed," relates Mrs. Skeels. "For a few minutes it was bedlam."

The woman wrapped Mickey in a coat, then called the owner, Mrs. Bud Johnson, 360 Acacia.

When the monkey saw her mistress, she leaped into her arms, apparently glad that the nightmarish week of flight was ended.

Mrs. Johnson said Mickey didn't seem any the worse for her eight days and nights of swinging from trees and traveling almost the entire length of Sierra Madre.

Mickey's paws were not burned, Mrs. Johnson reported, in spite of the fact that at one time she attempted to walk a high-voltage wire and was knocked to the ground.

Noisy Dogs
Bring Fine

Keeping noisy dogs proved costly this week for a Sierra Madre man and woman.

Appearing in court Saturday and at a special session Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Carlson, 391 W. Sierra Madre boulevard, were each fined $10 for keeping the noisy canines.

A petition, signed by 12 to 15 neighbors, had complained about the barking dogs—one of which was a great dane.

"Great danes make a lot of noise," observed Judge John C. Mead.

The original sentence was $40 or 20 days in jail, but Judge Mead suspended all but $10 for a year on condition that there are no further disturbances.

Youngsters Await Carrom Tournament

A carrom tournament is planned as tomorrow's special Friday afternoon event of the summer recreation program at the City School playgrounds.

Prizes and ribbons will go to winners of the contest, announced John E. Oden, city recreation director.

"Carrom is sort of a miniature pool game," explained Mr. Oden. All youngsters are eligible to compete.

YOUTHS TO EAT, SWIM
AT PLUNGE-BURGER PARTY

Sierra Madre's young people—plus a few of the not-so-young—will get together tomorrow evening, July 20, for a swimming-hamburger party.

Youths planning the event have dubbed it the "Plunge-Burger Party." Festivities will get underway at 6 p. m. at the Canyon Pool.

Dinner Fetes
City Volunteer
Fire Fighters

Sierra Madre's volunteer firemen—past and present—were honored Tuesday night at a testimonial dinner attended by 140 residents and members of the department.

The dinner was called, specifically, to honor two fire fighters, Andy Liscombe and Bob Newberry, who have completed 20 years' of service with the department. Mayor William A. Kinney, as master of ceremonies, presented 20-year badges to the two men.

Besides honoring the two special guests, tribute also was paid charter members and other 20-year men of the fire-fighting group.

Fire Chief James C. Heasley presented a brief verbal history

Won't Shop

"I won't come back to shop in Sierra Madre anymore."

That was the parting remark Saturday of Mrs. Glenn Callahan, 2806 E. Orange Grove, Pasadena, as the woman left city court.

Cited for parking on Baldwin avenue, when it was posted not to during the excavation work recently, Mrs. Callahan said, "I don't feel happy about it."

Judge John C. Mead wryly pointed out that traffic violators who have to pay fines rarely do "feel happy about it." He suspended $2 of a $5 fine.

The Pasadena woman said no one was working on Baldwin at that particular time and, "besides, my car sun visor was down and I couldn't see the 'no-parking' sign."

Mrs. Callahan stated that she wouldn't be spending "her $50 a week shopping here anymore."

Five other motorists forfeited bails for parking on North Baldwin during the street repair work.

NEWS Sure
Gets Around

"There on the screen was a copy of the Sierra Madre NEWS. It was just like a letter from home."

This was the exclamation of Mrs. Julian LaLone, 33 Vista Circle Drive, who, with her husband and son, Darrell, returned from a two-weeks' vacation trip north this week.

The LaLones report that, while viewing a film on California industries at the outdoor theater of Big Basin, Santa Cruz Mountains, they were somewhat startled to see a copy of the NEWS staring down at them from the movie screen.

The film had been describing the newspaper and publishing industry and was concluding the topic by showing the front pages of several California

School to Serve
'Subsidized Meals'

Sierra Madre City School will again participate in the federally-subsidized school lunch program, Superintendent Charles A. Skutt announced yesterday.

The program utilizes surplus foods and makes possible the purchase of a nourishing cafeteria lunch for only 25 cents. To be eligible, the school must guarantee that each tray will include the required percentage of protein.

Sierra Madre entered into this agreement with the national government for the first time last year.

Pace Friday's
Teen Dance

Music by a three-piece orchestra plus the latest recordings will set the pace for Friday's (July 20) teenage dance at the City School cafeteria.

Youths from the seventh through the tenth grades are invited to the dance, sponsored by the Recreation Commission.

John E. Oden, city recreation director, said dancing will be from 8 to 11, with beginning dance instructions offered at 7 o'clock. Mrs. John Rudbach will be instructor.

CITIZENS EXPRESS VIEWS
FOR, AGAINST DEPOT IDEA

In a sampling of Sierra Madre's unpredictable public opinion this week, more than twice as many citizens favored A. L. Suman's alternate plan for the conversion of the depot island as did those opposing it.

And several of those opposing Mr. Suman's proposal were actually just against doing anything at all to the old PE Station, and not necessarily in favor of the original plan sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

(Editor's note: The NEWS does not pretend that the phone calls and written expressions of 18 or 20 persons are necessarily an accurate polling of opinion in Sierra Madre. They do, however, reflect a trend in the thinking of those who cared enough to respond to our invitation of last week to register viewpoints.)

The opinions, some paraphrased or shortened in the interests of saving space, follow:

FOR MR. SUMAN'S
PROPOSAL

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roberts, Roberts Market: We think Mr. Suman's idea is the right one. The depot is not old enough to be a historical landmark or a tradition, and not large enough to be an art gallery.

Thomas M. Schwartz, Sierra Madre Hardware: I believe Mr. Suman has something there. His proposal seems very practical.

DAY CAMP
DATES SET

Sierra Madre's annual Day Camp will be held this year from Aug. 13 to 24. City Recreation Director John E. Oden disclosed this week.

Location and more specific details of the two-week camp will be announced soon, he said.

DePALMA CONTRASTS AUTO RACING TODAY, YESTERYEAR

"The Lord has been very good to me," modestly explains Ralph DePalma, automobile racing's greatest, most colorful figure who won 2557 races out of 2889 during his 27 years of racing.

Addressing the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club Tuesday noon, Mr. DePalma related some of his racing experiences and showed how cars and their speeds have changed down through the years.

The veteran, 68-year-old sportsman pointed out that when he won the 1915 500-mile Indianapolis Race, his car recorded an average speed of 89 miles per hour. He compared this with the 1951 Memorial Day Classic, won by Lee Wallard at an average speed of 126 mph.

Cooperation Asked
In Garbage Deadline

Many Sierra Madreams still are not cooperating by having their garbage out the night before collection days.

Mrs. Martha Matoian, city garbage and tin can contractor, said she lost $35 Tuesday because people forget to put out the garbage until after they saw the truck go by.

"We can't make return trips when we only get 2 cents a meter for pickups, anyway," a harrassed Mrs. Matoian told the NEWS.

"Please ask residents again to have their garbage out in the parkways the night before," she asked. Previously, the deadline was 6 a. m. of collection day. Mrs. Matoian intends to start her crews working before 5 a. m. in order to finish by the end of the day.

School Signs Annual Pasadena Contracts.

Sierra Madre City School Board this week signed two contracts with the Pasadena City Schools for the inter-district exchange of pupils.

One contract covers children of grades 1 through 6, and the other concerns pupils of the 7th and 8th grades.

Charles A. Skutt, superintendent of schools, pointed out that the contracts are renewed each year and make it possible for the Sierra Madre District to receive ADA (average daily attendance) funds from the state.

A 27-year-old Sierra Madream will leave this week on the first leg of a South Seas cruise aboard his 30-foot ketch, the "Interlude."

By yesterday noon, he still was planning to make the trip alone. The yachtsman, Dean Dawson, 480 Mount Wilson Trail, said he was interested, however, in talking with anyone who would like to make the trip.

Dawson, who served in the Merchant Marine for three years and has had some experience in navigation, plans to sail first to the Hawaiian Islands. After restocking, he will then embark on his long sail to the Solomon Islands and

"GOODS OF THE WOODS"

MR., MRS. ROESS RETURN FROM TRIP TO ALASKA

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Roess, 261 Adams, returned Sunday from a month's motor trip through several states, visiting friends, and cruising to Alaska.

In Seattle, Wash., the couple was entertained by former Sierra Madreans, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Senour Jr. They enjoyed a cruise off Seattle with the Senours, seeing many points of interest.

At Vancouver, B. C., Mr. and Mrs. Roess boarded the new steamship, Prince George, and began their trip north. They stopped off at many ports, traveling as far as Whitehorse.

"The scenery along the way was simply beautiful with magnificent waterfalls, and large lakes resembling mirrors," Mrs. Roess explained.

On the return trip, the Sierra Madreans saw many icebergs, although they said the weather was warm all the way. Arriving at Seattle, they again called on the Senour home where a surprise party awaited them.

Attending the Sierra Madre "reunion" were Mr. and Mrs. Al Wheeling, who are visiting their daughter, Ruth (Mrs. Phil Senour), and Mrs. Margaret Senour, who is temporarily making her home with her son, Phil, since the death of her husband.

The guests enjoyed dinner and made several trips together the next day.

Returning to Southern California, the Roess' stopped at Ventura where they visited Mrs. Walter Rock, a resident here for 35 years who now is making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Hull.

Sierra Madreans will be interested in knowing that Mrs. Rock is now operating a pet shop and has, besides her monkeys, birds, and prize boxers, a 11-week-old lion.

Although they had a wonderful trip, the Roess' report they are mighty glad to be home again."

Sitting Room In Memory of Dr. Pritchard

Of interest to many Sierra Madreans is the completion and occupation of the "Guy McCabe Rest Home" at Pilgrim Place in Claremont.

The building houses the health service for nearly 200 residents of this home for retired Christian workers. The organization was founded in 1915.

One wing of the building is given over to the Infirmary, formerly located in one end of a residence hall. Now enlarged and adequately equipped, it will care for a larger number of patients.

Remainder of the building provides rooms for those residents no longer physically able to care for themselves in their usual living quarters, but who still can be living among friends.

Sitting room of the suite for the resident superintendent and her assistant is a memorial room made possible by the gifts of numerous Sierra Madre residents. The plaque on the door reads:

"Given by His Friends
"In Memory of
"Arthur O. Pritchard, D.D."
Dr. Pritchard for 15 years was a member of the Board of Directors of Pilgrim Place, and this completed health unit fulfills a long-cherished dream.

Pipes to Save Oak Trees In Parkway

J. D. McAndrew, 311 N. Auburn, may install pipes in the gutter as a method of "saving" two beautiful parkway oak trees" which reportedly are suffering from drought.

The City Council gave Mr. McAndrew permission last week to install, at his own cost, two 4-inch pipes on the bottom of the gutter some distance above the trees. The resident pointed out that water runs by the street "nearly every day" and might just as well be used for watering the trees.

He said he would install a metal grating over the pipes to prevent rocks and trash from clogging them. "All the moisture the trees get now is what we put on when we water our lawn," Mr. McAndrew explained.

Permission was granted by the councilmen provided the plan was satisfactory to the street superintendent.

Embrees Return From Vacation

Police Officer and Mrs. H. S. Embree, 432 Mariposa, returned to Sierra Madre Thursday, July 12, after a vacation trip to Chico, Calif., and Lassen National Park.

While in Chico, the travelers visited Mrs. Embree's mother, Mrs. William Kurth, and two brothers, Howard and Harold McClelland. Mr. Embree reports he did a "little fishing" during the eight-day motor trip.

Officer Embree started back at his job with the Police Department Friday.

Mrs. Steward Reports Two Sons In Active Service

Mrs. Florence Steward of 161 Vista Circle has word from her son, Cpl. David Steward, who has been stationed at Camp Cooke, that he is spending a two-weeks' furlough with his wife and baby in Milwaukee, Wis., before reporting to Camp Stoneman, Calif. He formerly was with the 40th Division.

His brother, Lyle Steward, radio man 2-c, was called in June from his naval reserve status to active service. He is serving on the USS Baxter out of San Diego.

Camp Eta Jima is part of the south western command which has the mission of furnishing supplies and services to the troops in Korea and the Occupation Forces in Japan. Commanded by Brig. Gen. Carter W. Clarke, the command encompasses southern Honshu Island and the islands of Shikoku and Kyushu.

MRS. PARKER EXPLAINS PLAN FOR NURSERY

Mrs. Alicia Parker, who hopes to operate a nursery school at her home, 667 W. Grandview, feels that Sierra Madre has a "definite need" for such a school as she proposes.

The school would be for "pre-school children of working parents," she said. Mrs. Parker holds a bachelor of science degree in education and has general elementary and secondary teaching credentials, as well as teaching certificates for the exceptional child in both the elementary and secondary levels.

Mrs. Parker would enroll 16 students "at the very most," with class scheduled from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

The Planning Commission has scheduled a hearing on Mrs. Parker's zone variance request Thursday, July 26. She has told the planners that appearance of her house and front yard would not be changed in any way.

Masons See Grid Films

Colored movies of the 1945 and 1950 "East-West Shriner Football Games" were shown the 110 guests at the Masonic Deacons' Dinner Friday evening, July 13, at the Masonic Temple.

The film, "Little Joe," telling the story of a little crippled boy being admitted and restored to health at one of the Shriners' hospitals, also was presented. John C. Mead, master of the local lodge, spoke briefly on the work of the Shriners' hospitals and told where the one in Los Angeles is located.

Three "Precisionettes" (they are billed as the "Four Precisionettes") but one reportedly had zipper trouble) went through their baton-twirling routines.

TROOP 5 CAMPS AT YOSEMITE

Sixteen Boy Scouts and leaders from Sierra Madre Troop 5 left Monday morning for their camping trip to Yosemite.

The five-day excursion will end Friday afternoon with the campers' return home. Bill Spargur, Scoutmaster of the Bethany Church-sponsored troop, is leading the expedition.

Two family groups—the Jim Wares and the Douglas Woodwards—are taking part in the camp also. It is reported that Mr. Ware, a short-wave radio enthusiast, plans to maintain radio contact with Sierra Madre throughout the trip.

Travellers Report From Waikiki Beach

From Waikiki Beach, Honolulu, comes word this week from four enthusiastic Sierra Madreans—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nollac, Marilyn Nollac, and Mary Lou Spears.

"Everything is just wonderful here as they say—flowers, beaches, flowering trees, and balmy weather," the Sierra Madre travellers reported.

They planned to visit some of the other islands in the territory this week. The Nollacs live at 507 E. Grandview, and Mary Lou is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Spears, 501 N. Sunnyside.

Temple Dichondra 'Coming Beautifully'

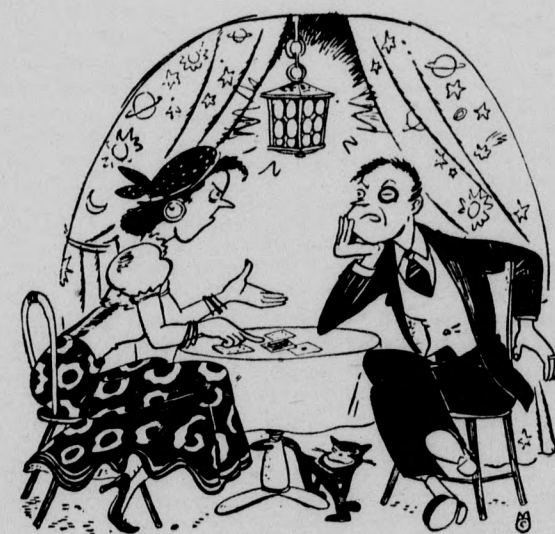

The dichondra in the yard of the Masonic Temple, 33 E. Sierra Madre boulevard, is "coming along beautifully," according to John C. Mead, master of the local lodge.

Members of the Daylight Saving Hoey Club still meet regularly, Judge Mead reports.

MACAULEYS NEAR END OF 500 MILES RIDE DOWN RIVER

From Blythe, Calif., came word last week from Mr. and Mrs. Alan C. Macauley of Mt. Wilson Trail, who are making a unique 500-mile trip down the Colorado River in an open boat.

The Sierra Madreans reported that they have now paddled more than 330 miles of the journey they are making to photograph scenes for TV and movie shorts. Their "biggest day" was July 3 when 45 miles were travelled in 9 hours and 10 minutes.

"The river current helped us a great deal," Mrs. Macauley said.

At the time of writing, the Macauleys had already portaged around five dams, and they still had three to go.

'RETURN TO PARADISE' MIXES FACT WITH FICTION

BY ISABEL STRADLEY

In James Michener's "Return to Paradise" he goes again to the scene of his earlier book, "Tales of the South Pacific." It is up to his usual standard of writing and is a mixture of fact and fiction.

He writes (as he chooses to call them) essays of about every Pacific island, Samoa, New Hebrides, Fiji, New Guinea and Australia and accompan- ies each with a short story.

In his essays he gives descriptions, historical back- grounds and the reactions of the natives to the intrusions of the Anglo-Saxon, Chinese and East Indians.

In short stories he carries out the same theme. He believes these Pacific Islands are the highway between America and Asia and from now on there will be immense traffic along that highway.

In spite of high prices, labor troubles, and the natives giving way to the intruders the area is still populated with the kindest people on earth, whether staid New Zealanders or happy Polynesians. It is a well defined picture of the post war Pacific.

Another South Pacific book which is of interest to Sierra Madreans is William Jenkins' "Okinawa." Bill is a local man serving with the occupational forces in Okinawa. He is quite a photographer and has made the book a pictorial work using his own pictures accompanied by brief descriptions.

He gives us information about an island of which little has been written, but his main interest is the people. He has evidently made many friends among the natives and holds them in high regard. It is a small book but will provide interest and pleasure for an hour's reading.

Other books received are: Non-fiction: Unpopular Essays, Russell; Dominations and Powers, Santayana; Pilgrim People, Lebeson; Price of Union, Agar; Interplanetary, Flight Clarke; Forests and Men, Greeley; The Ringlings, Harlow; Kennebec River, Coffin; The Sierra Nevada, Peattie; We Barrymores, Barrymore; World of Willa Cather, Bennett; My Life with Dreiser; Fifty Fabulous Years, Kaltenborn; Katherine Mansfield, Berkman; Steve Mather of the National Forests, Shankland; Short history of the Second World War, O'Neill; A Soldier's Story, Bradley; China Story, Utley.

Fiction: Umberto's Circus, Bass; Devilin Velvet, Carr; From the Sea and the Jungle, Carse; Great Stories of Science Fiction, Leinster; Man and Boy, Morris; Oracle, O'Connor; Promising Young Men, Sklar; High Calling, Street; Woman Called Fancy, Yerby.

Newsman Tells What to Send Men in Korea

(Editor's note: The following story was written by First Lieutenant Jeremiah A. O'Leary, assistant city editor of the Washington, D. C., Evening Star on military leave with the Marines.)

WITH THE FIRST MARINE DIVISION IN KOREA—Do you have a husband, son, brother or friend serving in Korea now and don't quite know what to send him?

This may help you decide what you can send that he can use best, within the limits of a soldier, marine or airman's ability to haul things around with him.

Send him candy, lots of candy. Plain chocolate bars and fruit drops are given free to front-line troops but the same- ness quickly palls and the division PXs only occasionally stock other varieties of the nicker-candy bar type. The boys really crave other sweets, in the absence of bars and drugstore, and the fancier the candy the better they like it.

Send cakes and cookies but package them sturdily or mail them in tin. A piece of pastry takes an awful mauling in the mails and an indifferently wrapped item will often arrive as crumbs.

Send books and magazines. The special services units do their best to provide troops with reading matter but there is never enough to go around and a "new" national magazine often accumulates a never-ending waiting list. Stars and Stripes' Pacific edition gets to rear units regularly but is sporadically received and scarce at the front.

Send him socks. A front line trooper can never get enough. Woolen socks, reaching higher than the ankle, are the most popular. They should be white or brown to meet uniform regulations; no elastic-angle or fancy weaves will be appreciated.

If he has a camera, send him film for it. Or, better still, send his camera. Neither is obtainable, at least in this part of Korea but conditions are pretty generally the same all along the front. A good many troops already carry cameras of all conceivable types and there doesn't seem to be any objection on the part of commanding officers.

He can use a flash-light, too, unless actually committed to a front line position, and even the combat soldiers go into reserve from time to time. Remember, Korea is a primitive agricultural country which has been economically destroyed.

AROUND THE SQUARE

smaller bus-waiting shelter at the lower tip.

The enclosing walls at both entrances to Kersting Court would end its use as a thoroughfare, but the Police Department hails this as one of the most desirable aspects of the plan.

It has been suggested that the bus-waiting shelter should be enlarged to provide better refuge during all kinds of weather. Another idea is to substitute shade trees for the needle-like trees in the drawing. Both these suggestions seem worthwhile.

Anyway, let's all try to keep open, unbiased minds during the discussion of this new proposal. Sure, the idea came late, and it might even nullify all the work several citizens and groups already put into the original project.

But if it is the better, more practical plan, that's the one we want.

Anybody find a stray wading pool?
If so, it belongs in the city parkhouse.

Mrs. Helen Miller, a representative of the Pasadena City Schools Parent Education Division, reports the pool has been AWOL since the last time her group met, more than a week ago.

Mrs. Miller's class meets Mondays, and the wading pool is used to keep the children happy outside while the mamas are attending class inside.

She describes the missing pool as 3 1/2 feet square, made of olive-green canvas with metal frame, and portable. Sierra Madre police think the wading pool is altogether too portable.

FIRE FLAMES

The Chief's wife called Stan Cann on the phone and said, "Dear Editor, we've been a subscriber of the Sierra Madre News for many years and I thought you might want to print a story about Jim. He's a wonderful man, doesn't smoke, doesn't drink, has always been a model husband and citizen in every way. He never uses strong language and he's never once been in a movie house. In fact, he has no vices or bad habits. And soon he will celebrate his 39th birthday."

"How?" asked the editor. The drill last Friday from the firehouse was the first for some in three weeks, due to the five Fridays in June. The meeting takes on an atmosphere of "Old Home Week." The men are so busily engaged in their own affairs that visits are out of the question.

Right now, some of the mechanically-inclined are adding more hose space to our extra truck. With the added hose this truck will be of great value. In order to do this, a new hose compartment is being built. This requires welding and fitting—much of it being done by our youthful members.

Clark's old car.

"Say, this car you sold me can't climb a hill! You swore up and down it was a good car," growled James.

"I didn't swear up and down. I said on the level it's a good car," was the rejoinder.

June has not been so good. We had two fire calls, a residence and an auto. The car was of minor nature, but the house fire could have resulted in tragedy.

A burning bed is a very serious matter. Just to remind folks who enjoy smoking in bed, it's a darn bad habit and darn dangerous.

When a person can fall asleep while driving a car, it can surely happen if you are stretched out in bed with a cigarette in the lips. DON'T SMOKE IN BED!

Mothers are urged never to leave small children alone. Even though they are permitted to run at large from house to yard—it still is a dangerous practice. Matches and fire are a temptation to children.

This is written before the dinner honoring two members of the fire department who are to be presented with badges denoting 20 years' of service in the department. Both "Bob" Newberry and "Andy" Liscombe have been valuable men to the efforts of the fire fighters.

It takes an unselfish man to serve as a volunteer fire fighter for that many years. He must be some kind of a "nut" to be willing to crawl from a warm bed on a cold night or jump into a burning house while he is dressed in his Sunday best during the day. What is there to it? It can't be graft. Maybe they need their heads examined.

At any rate, we brothers of the work fully appreciate Andy and "Kingfish" and "Bob" the master of brogue. Both are dearly loved by those who have to put up with 'em—may they be with us for 20 more years.

If you drink—don't drive.

Get an electric home food freezer now...and serve better meals

MENU VARIETY is what it takes to keep appetites up in most families. Tastes seem to go down unless you keep serving "tempters"—and you can do that best when you have an electric home food freezer.

With an electric home food freezer you can keep everything in season all the time. It doesn't have to be spring to make spring chicken taste good—and it doesn't have to be spring when you serve it, either. Same thing goes for fresh peaches and other fruits—they are fresh and delicious in January or July. Your food freezer assures it.

Another home freezer benefit is the money you save. In-season prices are lower than out-of-season prices, and by "buying ahead" and filling your freezer you store up savings right along with foods. It's an economical way to better eating.

Summer time is the very best time to buy and stock a home freezer. Your dealer has a variety of styles and models including the one that is just right for you. He can show you how food budget savings will pay for it, too—so why wait? See your dealer now!

ART OF RELAXING MAKES LIFE LONGER, DOCTOR SAYS

BY ROY O. GILBERT, M. D.
Los Angeles County Health Officer

People who have learned the pleasant art of relaxing tend to be healthier and to live longer than their high-pressure neighbors. They also tend to be more efficient in their work. Edison and Napoleon were both masters in the art of relaxing, and it is recorded that Napoleon could take a cat-nap while on horseback during the heat of battle.

The most dynamic people in the realms of science, art, and the professions seem to be those who have learned to alternate their activities with surges of intense output and period of repose, according to Dr. Morris Fishbein in a recent issue of the American Medical Association Journal.

With all the facts at hand it seems that men who pride themselves on being able to work hard all day, and still stay up half the night driving themselves mercilessly to complete unfinished tasks, are working at a low level of efficiency.

To work when fatigued is time-wasting. This is something for the homemaker to remember when she puts in a 12 to 14 hour day. When weary, the sooner one rests the less time is required to be ready again for work.

Furthermore it should be kept in mind that what appears to be simple fatigue is often an early symptom of physical ailment. Prolonged fatigue which is difficult to account for is always a warning signal to seek medical advice.

In our era of high-tension living, we have lost some of the ways of life which fed our forefathers with much of their inner strength. The old honored custom of the Spanish siesta, long since discarded in California, is one practice that could easily be adopted by many individuals and, according to observers, its powers of relaxation are excellent indeed. There are a few suggestions which will aid you to relax and thereby increase your vigor, aid your digestion, decrease your irritability—and perhaps even improve your sense of humor.

1. Let your muscles go limp

SON BORN TO GUARDSMAN STATIONED IN JAPAN

A son was born to Cpl. and Mrs. Johnny Graham, July 13th at St. Luke Hospital. He has been named Johnny, Jr., after his father, who is stationed in Japan with the 40th Division, Life Guards. 2. Practice good posture while sitting, as well as when walking and standing.

3. Talk out your troubles with an intimate friend. This acts as a mental catharsis.

4. Face up to worry-action relieves the tensions of indecision.

5. Broaden your interests beyond your usual daily routines.

There is an old saying that a live fox is better than a dead lion. People who work hard, play hard, and live tensely should take the saying to heart and remember that the inability to relax has been called a major American disease. So, relax—and live longer!

MISS SHIRLEE ANNE DAVIS' betrothal to Grandy Leonard West has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Davis of 170 Adams. Miss Davis is a student at Pasadena City College majoring in art. Mr. West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Poore Sawyer of Altadena is attending Pomona College. The wedding date has not been divulged.

for the green trees. And if we can get enough shade trees, we'll satisfy that sentiment.

Larry Shepherd, former manager of the VFW Raiders: A wonderful suggestion, and practical. Many more people will benefit by this plan than by the art gallery idea. A gallery undoubtedly would be used commercially by some artists at city expense.

John Rassmussen, Rassmussen Appliance: I'm for it 100 per cent. We have the business right at our door if we'd just invite them in. Now is the time to act, though.

John Froehlich, former mayor of Sierra Madre: I think you have something there.

William Lees, city building inspector: A perfectly beautiful plan!

Gordon G. McMillan, chief of police: I'm for Mr. Suman's proposal. It would go a long way toward easing the parking problem and would lessen the confusing traffic situation. Parking space is a very valuable commodity; let's utilize it when we get a chance.

Jessie E. Dunning, Jessie Dunning Gift: I'm for it! But let's have a larger bus shelter and shade trees, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Shipway, 292 E. Laurel: We want to say we think A. L. Suman's plan is far superior to the first idea in many, many ways. We like it very much.

Sam Perlot, Royal Drugs: I favor the second plan as a possible aid to parking. Mr. Suman's proposed layout would be much less expensive to maintain. The station building as suggested in the original plan, never would be adequate as an art gallery and would require a caretaker on duty at all times.

Roland Adams, 217 W. Highland: Let's get rid of the old depot!

Francis Eakman, 194 Mariposa: Under Mr. Suman's proposal, the additional space gained could be used for band and choral concerts and for dances. At Christmas time, we could have the area lighted, with a Christmas tree in the center.

Elgin Mason, 15, 658 Orange Drive: It seems to be a good plan, but I suggest that the flower-encased walls along Kersting Court have benches built-in on the sidewalk side. (Editor's note: a thoughtful suggestion for a boy of 15).

AGAINST MR. SUMAN'S PROPOSAL:

Lee Shippey, columnist, author, and former correspondent: I must cordially disagree with Mr. Suman's suggestions for the old station... Sierra Madre has a wide reputation as a town of distinction, of people who love and preserve beautiful and artistic and traditional things... The original plans for improving the station will make that spot a battle flag of distinction, evidence that here is one town which won't tear down a mark of distinction in order to create another parking lot...

Myrtle and Marvin Weese, 358 N. Canon Dr.:... We have there now a place of beauty and utility with a friendly atmosphere and to make this change would lose the most distinctive feature of our town center. The original plan should be carried out to preserve the character of the building with the surrounding trees. A small art exhibit would be invaluable, although none of us believes it would replace the City Hall as an exhibition gallery.

Murray Hawkins, 610 Auburn: This is not complete asinine! Form an improvement district and let the merchants pay. It would be plain criminal for the City Council to pay anything for this.

Janet S. Wood, 38 E. Grandview: I, for one, heartily disapprove of Mr. Suman's plan for a parking lot in the center of our little city. Must everything of beauty give way to the automobile... I would like to add that I agree with Mr. Suman on getting rid of the old station. It is not a thing of beauty and would not make a good art gallery... It would be far less expensive for the city to care for grass and trees than to maintain that old building...

An "unidentified woman:" I think it's perfectly terrible.

Article Tells About Smog In LA Area

"Smog, Resource or Nuisance?" to Sierra Madre and other Los Angeles County communities is discussed in the July issue of Western Industry magazine by Gordon P. Larson, director of the county Air Pollution Control District.

As one of the most critically smog-affected areas, the article points out that LA County has spared "neither effort nor expense to improve conditions." Mr. Larson indicates the general costs of typical control equipment, expense of operation, and benefits derived from installation.

He shows how "the quality of commodities, efficiency and speed of production, working conditions, and industrial public and labor relations have been improved, while maintenance costs have been reduced through smog control."

there a year or two."

The young man gives two special reasons for making the trip, besides the over-all fun and adventure. They are:

(1) Dean hopes to return to Sierra Madre with a wife from the South Pacific;

(2) He will do missionary work during his island stops. The Sierra Madrean is an ordained minister from the Emmanuel Temple of Los Angeles.

The "Interlude" is a Gulf-weed-typesailboat and is equipped with the latest in navigational equipment. Dawson recently was given $1200 worth of modern navigation and communication equipment.

The young man has owned several boats, but has had this one only since last December.

Busily making last-minute preparations, Dawson has his boat moored temporarily at the Long Beach City Yacht Anchorage, slip 52.

ODEN CALLS FOR CARTONS, SPOOLS

Wait! Don't throw it away yet.

If "it" happens to be an ice cream or cottage cheese carton, or a wooden thread spool, the city recreation director has need for it.

John Oden explained that cartons and spools are in big demand as handicraft materials at the City School playground.

If you have any, don't throw 'em away. Turn them in at the school, he says.

HEAT OVERCOMES FRUIT PICKER

A citrus fruit picker was overcome by the heat Tuesday while working at Bassett and Washburn Kentia Nurseries, 326 E. Sierra Madre boulevard.

The fruit picker, a Mexican national, was not identified. He was working under auspices of the Sierra Madre-Lamanda Citrus Association. A spokesman of the association said the worker was not seriously ill and probably would be able to return to work today or tomorrow.

George Phelps directs "The Tavern," with Housely Stevenson Jr., Peggy Campbell, Graydon Spalding, and Bobker ben Ali heading the cast. "A Prince There Was" ends its Playhouse run Sunday, July 22.

Show Boasts 150 Dolls, Many Mothers

Dolls—nearly 150 of them—were on display Friday, as Sierra Madre youngsters staged a doll contest at the City School playground.

Four picnic-type tables were covered with every conceivable kind and size of dolls. One, reported to be 100 years old, won a prize for being the oldest.

Approximately 60 boys and girls had dolls in the contest, and many youngsters came dressed as "doll mothers," wearing women's clothes, high heels, and make up.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

by
RALPH (Val)
VALENCIA

The local Elk's foursome traveled to Alondra Park Golf Club Sunday to qualify for the August Southern California Gold Trophy match. This is a 6-man team event. And from all reports Monrovia has a good chance to cop the cup. Sunday's results were just about par. Krinke had a 72 net. Also at par was Vickers with 72, then came Larson and Hasinger with 74s, Greehanuch 75 and Burns 76. Valencia and Rabb both slipped on the back nine and wound up with 78s. Andy Liscomb was not on hand to give out Sunday, but I understand Andy drove a ball through the tunnel at the Rose Bowl while playing at Bookside course two weeks ago. He hasn't been seen since he went in to retrieve his ball. I wonder if he is still there trying to hit that little white pellet back out the tunnel, could be, as Andy is noted for attempting tough shots.

ON THE DIAMOND
Clifton's base ball park in Monrovia was the scene of a great pitcher's battle last Monday night. The Huntington Park Elk's team crossed bats with the Monrovia Elks for 10 innings before breaking the ice. In the first half of the 11th, Huntington Park pushed two runs across the plate, then blanked Monrovia in their half to win the game 2 to 0. Bill Lee of Huntington Park and Bob Decker of Monrovia both pitched great ball and after 2 or 3 innings you could see that it was going to be an error or a break to produce a winner.

First basemen Peterson of Huntington Park was the shining star of the evening, making two beautiful catches of labeled base hits, and caused some 300 fans in the stands to moan for the home team, then cheer for the visitors. But after the last man was out everyone agreed they had witnessed a great game win, lose or draw.

LINE AND SINKERS

Reports reaching me have classed fishing as a very poor sport this summer. Seems as if the sport is all on the fishes' side, just laying back watching the would-be anglers trying to lure them on the hook. So enjoying the art of angling, I am, after this issue going to take a month off and see if I can find some uneducated fish loafing around. If I get any hot tips on fishing I will send them in to the News. So you can parlay them or play them across the board. No! No! Wait a minute that is another sport. Well anyway, I'll be seeing you about August 15th. That's 30 for now.

The Hottons say they are enjoying their three-week stay here so much that they've decided to return next year to make their permanent home in Sierra Madre.

of the Sierra Madre FD, describing how it was organized in 1919. The chief also read a satire telling "What (Not) to Do When the Fire Alarm Sounds."

Several musical numbers were presented by Gustav and Olive Rihder, Mrs. Rihder, soprano, sang three numbers, and Mr. Rihder, concert pianist, played three selections. "America" and the Pledge to the Flag were read by Francis Eakman, chairman in charge of planning the testimonial meeting. The dinner was prepared by members of the Woman's Club.

DePALMA CONTRASTS

the big race—I finished fifth and had to change tires eight times," Mr. DePalma pointed out. "I was stopped for repairs for a total of 45 minutes."

As a contrast, the speaker said Wallard only had to change one tire in this year's race, and the first eight cars crossed the finish line within only four minutes.

"I frequently have been asked why, in view of the many accidents, automobile racing still continues," Mr. DePalma stated. "My answer is that there always must be a price for progress. We've learned a lot from racing."

He said that tire manufacturers and racing car mechanics have saved many lives through their improvements which eventually benefit the motorist.

Mr. DePalma explained that the average Indianapolis car carries 100 gallons of gas and averages 2 to 5 miles to the gallon—although Wallard this year averaged 7½ miles per gallon.

The fact that Wallard's car weighed only 1600 pounds was one of major reasons he only had to stop for one tire change, the speaker pointed out.

He showed a colored movie, "Behind the Checked Flag," which described the many months' preparation and study necessary to get a car ready for the "big day."

In two months, Mr. DePalma said the film on the 1951 race will be completed and available to service clubs.

He is making a tour of the Southland for General Petroleum Corporation and, in the fall, will also continue his safety-driving classes for the Los Angeles City Schools.

Although Mr. DePalma has not raced on the Indianapolis Speedway since 1927, he still leads all other drivers in the amount of laps which he has led in the 500-mile race. Wilbur Shaw is the only other driver to approach his record on 613 laps. Shaw has 508 laps to his credit.

Mr. DePalma won 36 100-mile championship races in all parts of the country from the period 1908 through 1926. Most of these were dirt track races.

This Week in Television

—EFFECTIVE JULY 5 THROUGH JULY 11—

Look... Hear... Now!
BY STUART and JANE HEINEMANN

Anticipating the "things to come" on television is the most pleasurable pastime of covering the video industry. And it also is gratifying to know that at least for some years to come television is going in just one direction—forward to better entertainment.

Locally, shows will be little better. Live wrestling shows little sign of weakening its strangle hold on the public. "Time for Beany" shows no sign of being unseated as top children's program (with 50 per cent of its audience being adult). Los Angeles being made up largely of Midwesterners and Southwesterners, the Western variety shows such as "Spade Cool" and "Hometown Jamboree" will remain popular. "Gorgeous" Gussie Moran may develop into a West Coast Faye Emerson. Dick Lane, Art Baker and other old favorites may grow tiring and slip a little, but their successors are not yet in sight.

All in all, it's pleasant to prognosticate about TV. Because it looks like only good ahead.

We've asked CBS two pertinent questions regarding their whirling color disk for color TV. First, can it be used to slice cold meats, and second, is there any danger of children getting the tips of their noses cut off? Most kids don't believe what you tell them about "proper viewing distance." They go on the "closer the better" assumption.

COMING ATTRACTIONS...

A heavy schedule of new shows, both local and network, has been announced in Hollywood.

"Bob Shannon's Varieties," a weekly half-hour variety show formerly on KFI-TV, now seen on KTTV, Thursday, 9:00 P. M.

A new series of musical telecast, "Television Recital Hall," seen Sunday, KNBH, 8:30 P. M., presents outstanding artists of the concert world.

New full-hour series of first-run (for TV) feature films now on KTSL, Friday, 9:00 P. M. It's going to be hard for the announcer who has to say it, but the series name is "Schlitz Film Firsts."

KNBH has just premiered "World Digest," Sunday, 8:00 P. M., which features films shot by NBC camera reporters both here and abroad.

"Fireside Theater" is now presenting a special eight-week series of shows Monday, 9:00 P. M. over KNBH. Series employs a "theater-in-the-round" technique, with cameras trained on the action from almost every angle and with a minimum of scenery.

A new musical extravaganza, the "Goodyear Summer Time Revue," starring baritone Earl Wrightson and songstress Maureen Cannon, premieres Thursday, July 26, 8:30 P. M. over KECA-TV.

Edward Arnold, ABC's "Mr. President," offers this topical advice:

"The bigger the summer vacation, the harder the Fall."

It happened on KTLA's "Hollywood Opportunity." For a few terrifying minutes it appeared that "Murder in the TV Studio" was about to be enacted in real life.

Before the horrified eyes of emcee Harry Babbitt and the entire staff, a young acting aspirant discarded his rehearsed role in front of camera and theatre audience and began raving and crying about "Hollywood is out to do me in... nobody will give me a chance."

The audience thought it was part of the act. Suddenly the actor drew a revolver and waved it threateningly. Only then did the TV cameras frantically shift over to the band. The audience applauded but Babbitt and the staff nearly fainted. Only then did the actor reveal he had planned it all as a publicity stunt.

Sat in on some anxious hours of the Joe Adams Show. Pianist Errol Garner was to be the guest on the all-negro musical extravaganza. Rehearsals were to go from 4 P. M. right up to 9:30 P. M. showtime. Came 5 P. M. and no Garner. 6:00 and still no Garner. Still no guest at 7 P. M. and all efforts to locate him proved fruitless. Then the production staff went to work. Pianist Walter Gross was located. "Would he come?" "Surely he would." He was there by 8 P. M. and went on to do a fine job.
